

Coffee Shop Sales Analysis Report

The coffee shop generating approximately $698.8K in revenue from 149K transactions during the analysis period.

Revenue more than doubled from $81.7K in January to $166.5K in June, indicating significant positive momentum and growing customer demand.

Key Insights

Strong Revenue Growth

The most significant growth occurred from April , with revenue reaching its highest level in June. This suggests that recent business initiatives, customer demand, product mix, or operational improvements may be contributing to the positive performance.

Core Product Demand

Coffee and tea are the primary transaction drivers, with coffee generating approximately 58.4K transactions and tea 45.4K. This confirms that Products are at the heart of the business and should remain a major strategic focus.

Peak Morning Demand

Customer activity is strongest during the morning, particularly around 8-10 AM, with 10 AM representing the highest transaction period. This makes the morning window critical for revenue generation and customer experience.

High-Value Products

Barista Espresso leads revenue generation at approximately $91.4K, followed by Brewed Chai Tea ($77.1K), HotChocolate ($72.4K), and Gourmet Brewed Coffee ($70.0K).

Recommendations

- Protect Peak-Hour Performance
- Replicate the Growth Drivers
- Prioritize Top Products
- Increase Cross-Selling
- Improve Demand-Based Inventory Planning